THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, THURSDAY, OCT. 12, 1865 NO. 282.

BY J. L. PENNINGTON & CO.

STATE CONVENTION.

The Convention met at 10 o'clock a. m.
Prayer by Rev. Mr. Atkinson.
The Journal was read and corrected.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Eaton, from the committee on the power of limiting the legislature in contracting State debts, reported an ordinance on that subject.

Mr. Manly, from the committee on submitting the ordinances of the convention to the people, reported recommending the submission to the people for ratification of the ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of secession and the ordinance prohibiting slavery in this State.

ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Jones, an ordinance providing for the elections of clerks and sheriffs.

Mr. Moore, a resolution to refer that portion of the Treasurer's report relating to unfaithful State agents to a committee of three.

Mr. Pool, from the committee on the Freedmen's address, reported substantially that although legislation on this subject properly belonged to the General Assembly, some initiatory steps should be taken by the convention to further the objects to be desired, to improve the condition of the blacks.

On motion of Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, 500 copies of the report were ordered to be printed.

Mr. McCoy presented a resolution, requesting the Governor to enquire into the cases of certain persons held in arrest by the military authorities and take steps to have them turned over to the civil authorities.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The ordinance declaring what ordinances and laws are in force, pending yesterday at the hour of adjournment, was taken up, the last section in regard to the marital relations of the freedmen being under consideration.

Mr. Phillips advocated the appointment of a committee to confer during recess and prepare a code for the freedmen to be submitted to the Legislature. The Freedmen's Bureau might be consulted and a satisfactory adjustment of laws be effected.

Mr. Settle said he did not wish to consult any bureau. The convention should act for itself.

After a protracted debate, the ordinance passed its second reading. Yeas 68, nays 42.

The resolutions reported by the committee on general amnesty were adopted.

The ordinance declaring against the payment of the State war debt, was taken up and considered.

Mr. Mebane moved to lay on the table.

Mr. Thompson called for the yeas and nays, and the roll being called, the motion was not agreed to. Yeas 51, nays 62.

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, moved to adjourn.

Mr. Settle called for the yeas and nays.

The motion was adopted, yeas 59, nays 55, and the convention adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Gov. Brownlow on the Negro Question—War of Races Threatened in Tennessee.

In the Knoxville Whig of the 27th ult., there is a long letter from the Senoir Editor (Gov. Brownlow,) written from Nashville, we suppose, which shows the condition of the negro question in Tennessee to be rather discouraging. We copy from the Governor's letter:

CONCENTRATION OF NEGROES IN THE TOWNS—THEIR CONDUCT.

Thousands of free colored persons are congregating around and around the large towns in Tennessee, and thousands are coming in from other States, one-third of whom cannot get employment. Indeed, more than one-third of them want employment, or are willing to stoop to work. They entertain the erroneous idea that the Government is bound to support all their wants, and even to furnish them with homes, if in order to do that, the white occupants must be turned out. There is a large demand for labor in every section of the State, but the colored people, with here and there a noble exception, scorn the idea of work. They fiddle and dance at night, and lie around the stores and street corners in the day time. And some of the indiscreet teachers of the negro from the North, who know nothing of the negro character, have been known to tell them not to go to white people! Having the single idea in the head of abolition, they advise the simple and credulous negroes to a life of precarious subsistence, idleness and dancing and of crowding into the towns to be educated, in preference to good wages and comfortable homes in the country. If some change is not made, when the winter comes on and if the military force is withdrawn, as they will be, there will be great suffering and fearful mortality among them. There is a bad state of feeling between them and the whites, and it is daily growing more bitter. Many of the negroes are insulting white families, who never owned any of their color, and never did them any wrong. They frequently see unprotected white women off of our narrow pavements, and curse white men passing them just to show their authority. Others are swearing on the streets—and we have heard them—that they clean the d——d town! And still another class swear, that if they are not allowed their rights at the ballot box they will resort to the cartridge box! And they swear they will be backed up by the Government. As one desiring the welfare of the colored people, they will permit me to say, that they can't force the Legislature of Tennessee into conferring upon them the elective franchise. They can, by the demonstrations they are making in this direction, drive themselves of any such privilege, so far as the Legislature is concerned. The Federal Government has no right to control the suffrage question in Tennessee. And the great Union party of the Nation will have more sense than to attempt to control the question by Congressional legislation.

WHAT EAST TENNESSEEANS WILL NOT STAND.

President Johnson will remove all troops from East Tennessee before a great while, and the colored people will as well as the whites will have to take care of themselves. A portion of them I know, and I feel assured that will be industrious and quiet citizens, providing for themselves and families. The great majority of them will not, and will get into trouble—many of them will break into the penitentiary! They will defy their threats of violence to accomplish any end, and he is their best friend who advises them to adopt this course of conduct. Colored soldiers in the Federal uniform, with guns and pistols in their hands, do not suppose that East Tennesseans will be intimidated by them, or suffer their families to be abused. I know these people, and I know they will not submit to be run over by negro soldiers. And in saying this, I desire to keep down any conflict between the races. The East Tennessee troops, who have fought three dreadful years to free the negroes and get the privilege of coming back to their old and wasted homes, are not the men to be run over by Federal soldiers who came into the fight at the eleventh hour. And those who have the immediate control of the colored troops, and are in daily conversation with them, had as well understand this fact at once. Loyal men in East Tennessee concede to the colored people their freedom, and the right to enjoy all they can make, or even realize from the aid of the Government, and the still further privilege of educating their children; but they are not prepared to see all the churches and school-houses turned over to them, and the innocent white children of Union parents, who never owned any slaves, denied houses of worship and houses in which to teach school, because a few impudent teachers, upstarts from the North, out of any other employment, have conceived the idea of immortalizing the negro! There are those of us here, claiming to be on the side of the Union, who still think, notwithstanding the result of the war, that a white child is as good as a black one! There are those of us here, on the Union side, who do not recognize the right of the government, after emancipating the negroes of Union men, to take their lands and property as a punishment for their having owned slaves! There are those of us here, claiming that there is no discount upon our Unionism, who don't recognize the right of a captain or lieutenant in command of colored troops, upon the representation of a negro of bad character, arresting respectable loyal white men with negro bayonets, and marching them from one county to another for trial, when their condemnation has been agreed upon by the negroes in advance! And there are thousands of true-hearted Union citizens and discharged Federal soldiers in East Tennessee, who will die right here, in a second war, before they will submit to any such insults, wrongs and outrages.

A DAY OF RECKONING WILL COME IF THE NEGROES ARE NOT TAUGHT TO KNOW THEIR PLACES.

I speak out plainly, because the state of the public mind requires it. There is a deep, intense, a desperate feeling getting up throughout this end of the State upon this subject. I think I see where and what it will lead to, and I desire to remedy the evil. I advise the white population to treat the negroes justly in all respects, and not to disturb them in their lawful and peaceful pursuits. They were armed and uniformed by the government, and ought not to be denounced on that account, where they conduct themselves properly. On the other hand, let those who have control of the negroes advise them to a quiet and peaceful course, and to reconcile it to themselves to see white men and their families enjoy what rightly belongs to them. Let them frown down all malicious complaints from negroes of bad character against white persons who have always stood fair.—Let them cease to arrest gentlemen of character and standing, and of loyalty, because some enraged slave has fancied he can procure such arrest. A day of reckoning will come hereafter, and if these encroachments upon the rights and liberties of loyal men are impudently continued, that day will come sooner than any of us want to see it!

A NEGRO BALL—MISCEGENATION.

I am informed that a colored ball in the University building in this city, three colored persons were killed in one night. It is said they were shot by white men dressed in women's clothes. Of course I condemn, in unmeasured terms, any such outrage, and I make mention of it to show the state of the feeling getting up between the races. These balls are too frequent, and all wrong. White soldiers, and officers, attend them and dance with the colored women. One Ohio soldier, a man of very fair education, procured a license to marry, but not disclosing the color of his intended, and actually married a wench, formerly a slave in this city! If this sort of alliance suited his taste, I have no complaints to make. But I do complain that the morals of the colored population are not so good since their freedom as when they were in bondage. And as the speed we are all making in the direction of their enlightment, our teaching, preaching, praying, singing and dancing will take half of them to ruin in a very short time.

THE GOVERNOR SHARES THE FATE OF COMMON FOLKS—IS KNOCKED INTO THE GUTTER.

The officer addressing me the foregoing letter, (which we omit) states that "we all respect the noble men who, for four years, have stood by the Union," but he thinks that in that time "they should have learned to respect the uniform of the army." One half of all the colored soldiers in uniforms in East Tennessee have no respect for that uniform, and do not appreciate its dignity and importance. Two of them in full uniform, some time since, upon a narrow side walk in this city, knocked the writer of this article into the gutter, throwing him upon his hands and knees. He was trying to get out of their way, and they saw it, but being feeble, and leaning upon a staff, he moved too slow for their ideas of progress. I made no complaint, but concluded that these colored ruffians had not learned to respect the uniform of the army," and I went my way—not rejoicing—but feeling in the left knee that I was worsted by the encounter, which I had not brought about, but sought to prevent! Soldiers and officers, wearing the Federal uniform, ought all to be gentlemen, no matter what their color, but the only two colored soldiers I ever encountered did not prove to be of that stripe. I have no wish to try them again—I might light upon others less refined who would run me through with the bayonet! Being denied a white man's choice, I only ask a negro's privilege of getting out of the way!

Gov. Hamilton, of Texas, issued a proclamation ordering the assessment of a direct ad valorem tax, of twelve and half cents on each hundred dollars of property; also a poll tax of one dollar on each voter.

The Kentuckians are urging the removal of Gen. Palmer from the chief command in that State.

THE CITY.

BANKING.—We omitted inviting attention yesterday, to the advertisement of the Raleigh National Bank. We now supply the neglect and congratulate our citizens upon the prospect that within a brief space of time they may hope to be relieved from the embarrassments of the present moment in the matter of capital. There is a large and intelligent amount of enterprise here which cannot be fairly developed under existing circumstances. Our worthy mechanics are embarrassed and circumscribed in all their operations; numbers are either without employment or unable to re-establish themselves at the heads of their profession: so we hail with satisfaction the appearance of every new artery which promises to give vigor to paralyzed industry. The total eclipse of the old banks—the annihilation, to be plain, of our former banking system, exposes the chief reason of our momentary depression: but we should take heart from the lesson of all the past, as no fact is better established than that the future is robust with prosperity if we only work and patiently await results. The past of finance in this State is a dead letter; but a safer and wiser policy must be reared upon its ruins—such an one as will afford ample aid to merchant, mechanic and laborer—all who are honest and energetic.

DRY.—Yesterday is universally voted to have been the driest day of the year. Men were dry, the money market being tight; the convention proceedings were dry; the streets are ditto; and the clamor for something wet, about the size of Mr. NoR's flood, is in great demand. We saw one individual enter a store on Hargett street and gravely inquire if they had any portable reservoirs containing one thousand gallons of water. A friend, who had just lost his father and mother, and eight other relatives, and whom we know to be of strong sympathetic, ardent temperament, confessed to us that he was so dry he could'nt shed a tear. The public distress is terrible and unless the clouds relieve us, the newspapers will be filled with obituaries, all beginning "Died of dry" on such and such a day.

PETTY LARCENY—as green-bag would say—is of nightly occurrence in this city. A calf was slaughtered, Tuesday night, in the northern part of the city, and another pursued unsuccessfully. A negro entered the yard of Mr. David Royster, on Newbern street, last night, and bore away a large pile of wood. Mr. Stephen Jones, near the gas house, has lost no less than four sheets within the past four weeks. So we go and so things must continue for some time to come. It is only by an efficient and numerous police organization that the tide of crime can be stayed. We believe that the addition of ten or twelve men to the present police would do much towards suppressing these small raids and the prevention of more serious ones in the future.

PICKING THEM UP.—Military details were again on the streets of the city, yesterday, picking up negroes that have no place of abode, or in other words, those without employment who are loafing about the street without any visible means of support. We saw a squad of them going down Fayetteville street, under guard, bearing a huge coil of wire, ladder and other emblems of industry. Yet another draft might have been seen with brooms and spades cleaning the streets; in fact, the course of the military authorities recently has been such as to contribute largely towards breaking up what we all have so much cause to fear: extensive and confirmed pauperism, the prelude of crime.

THE LEGISLATURE.—We received the following late last night:

MR. EDITOR:—Without reflecting upon the gentlemen who have been named for the Legislature, allow me to suggest the following ticket for that body from Wake county:

For the Senate—Sion H. Rogers.

For the Commons—A. Frank Page, Charles M. Farris and Geo. H. Faribault.

These gentlemen are sound and true patriots, and would be acceptable to the masses of the people.

AUBURN.

COMING.—Dudley & Ryan's combination troupe of minstrels will be here in a few days and we do not doubt but that the patrons of the concert room will enjoy a huge treat. The Charlotte Times refers to their performances in that place in most complimentary terms and when they open here we expect them to reap crowded halls.

A SALE of horses and other property of government has been progressing for two days past, at the Baptist Grove. Capt. Garoutte, a. q. m., keeps everything under his charge in splendid order and we therefore expect good prices have been obtained.

DESIGNATED.—The Treasurer of the United States has designated the Raleigh national bank, George W. Swepson, president, as a depository of public moneys.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THURSDAY, OCT. 12, 1865.

The State Convention.

The session of this body, yesterday, must have been brief, as very small headway appears to have been made with business. Committee report was made in behalf of submitting to the people, for acceptance or rejection, ordinances repealing secession ordinance and another prohibiting slavery in the State. For other matters, see proceedings.

The Elections.

It is now less than a month when the people of North Carolina will be called on to vote for a Governor, for members of Congress, and for members of the State Legislature, and no time is to be lost in organizing in favor of the right kind of men. As General Washington said on one occasion, "Put none but Americans on guard to-night," so we say to loyal men in North Carolina now, put none but Union men in office at this important juncture.

We do not thiuk that the Convention has acted wisely or generously in the matter of fixing the term of the Governor and Legislature, now to be elected, for one year, when the custom has been for both to hold for a term of two years; but whether short or long the term, the work to be performed is of the most important character. We suppose that the leaders of the disaffected have abandoned all idea of opposition to Gov. Holden now, for it is apparent to all that there would not be the slightest show fo success; but the desire on their part to dispose of him as soon as possible may have had something to do with the ordinance which fixes two elections for Governor within nine months. In the present demoralized and confused condition of things, we do not think that these frequent elections will be productive of good, and to cut down Mr. Holden or any other gentlemen to a term of one year in the Executive office, will not afford them a fair chance to mature and develope their policy, however wise and prudent.

We shall support Mr. Holden at the election in November, from a sense of duty to the State and country, believing he can do more than any other man to restore the State to the Union and secure for our people that clemency and favor of which they are so much in need. And we believe too that his defeat would be looked on as the triumph of disaffection and treason and destroy all hope of an early restoration of the State to the Union. Such being our own views, and such the motives that actuate us, we can consistently call on the loyal masses throughout the State to support Gov. Holden. Let Holden men, of unmistakable loyalty and devotion to the Union, be at once put in the field for the Assembly, and let us thus secure a Governor and Assembly that will work in harmony and for the best interests of the State and country.

There is no time for conventions and county meetings, and such gentlemen as desire to run for the Legislature should announce themselves at once. And we trust that there will be but one Union ticket in a county. Let Union men confer together as far as possible under the circumstances, agree upon the best men to represent them, and then go to work and elect them.

And as there is no time to hold county and district meetings to canvass the claims of different aspirants for Congress, those who desire to run will have to announce themselves and take the field. Union men should be careful, however, to put forward a man in each one of the districts that can take the prescribed oath, for it will be worse than folly to present a man at Washington who cannot take it. That such men can be found in every district we are fully assured.

The time allowed to organize and work in is short, and Union men have no time to loose, for it is of the utmost importance that the Legislature be composed of the truest and best men, and that we send to Congress such as will be entirely unobjectionable. Mr. Holden's election we look on as certain.

A GENERAL AMNESTY.—We are gratified at the disposition on the part of the Convention, to appeal to President Johnson to carry out what the newspapers affirm he has been seriously contemplating. The memories of the past are afflicting and excite melancholy and regret. The condition of our whole people is one that demands general commisseration and sympathy, and we have such confidence in the President's kindly feelings towards our whole people, we shall look for good results from the effort. But the resolution before the Convention falls short of what it should be. We think its proposition should embrace definitely Zebulon B. Vance and Jefferson Davis.

Sentinel.

Do this; ask for the pardon of Z. B. Vance and Jefferson Davis, and let the President of the United States heed the prayer of the Convention and turn the prisoners loose, and treason is no longer a crime. Such a proceeding will give the approval of the government to the highest crimes known to our laws, the leaders and prime movers of the rebellion will be declared as good, before the world, as those who have poured out their blood to save the Union; and the high-sounding words of the President about making treason odious for all time, will all past as nothing. We do not desire the blood of any man, but for the safety and peace of society, for the future of the country, and for the cause of humanity, the law, in this case, should be appeased. Pardon the leaders in the late rebellion and we offer a premium to all who shall choose to conspire to get up another.

If Jefferson Davis is not a great criminal, the United States has not only grossly erred, but has been guilty of an unjustifiable outrage in confining him for months to the casement of a strong fortress; but if a great criminal, any interference in his behalf by the State Convention would be an insult to the heads of the government under whose orders Mr. Davis is held to be tried for treason.

While the troops were here, in May and June, no man could be found to sympathize with leading traitors, but now that the cord has been slackened and leniency has been abused, secession and disaffection is rampant, and the modest demand is made that the North Carolina State Convention demand full pardon for Zebulon B. Vance and Jefferson Davis. No wonder that there is a party in the State, and that there are some men in the Convention that would like to see these two worthies restored to liberty and power. No doubt but these same sympathizers will insist that our members of Congress be instructed to demand the release of Davis when they reach Washington; and, as disaffection grows bolder, our Convention or Legislature will probably be called on to affirm that Mr. Davis, and others who plotted the assassination of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, were doing God's work. We have scarcely ever had a doubt but Davis knew that the attempt was to be made to assassinate or kidnap Mr. Lincoln, and that it was a part of the programme of the war on the Union, deliberately and maturely considered.

We suggested, some time since, believing the people could be generally trusted, the propriety of a universal amnesty to all men save those who were held to be tried for treason or other crimes, and we confess that a proclamation from the President granting such grace and favor to our erring people would be very gratifying to us; but we are not prepared to ask, demand, or implore forgiveness and amnesty for Z. B. Vance and Jefferson Davis; and we do not think that the State Convention can, with any degree of propriety, interfere between these criminals and the government.

We publish below a letter from Elias Smith, Esq., correspondent of the New York Tribune. Of Mr. Smith's social relations or who he does or does not visit and walk with, we have nothing to do. He is here as the representative of a paper that wields an immense influence in this great nation, whose proprietors would hardly select blackguards for such positions, and as such we feel bound to give him a hearing. The threat of violence against Mr. Smith we think most probably the work of some thoughtless youth, for the majority of the young men of Raleigh are not the character of persons that engage in mobs or lynching demonstrations. They are gentlemen and behave as such, and neither Mr. Smith or any other well behaved person has anything to fear from them. If there are persons here who sincerely meditate the renewal of this South Carolina sport of mobbing "yankees" they would do well to reflect that there are a few United States troops yet in the vicinity. We feel it especially incumbent on us to give Mr. Smith a hearing as it has been denied him in one of our city cotemporaries, where he first asked for it. The following note will explain itself:

STANDARD OFFICE,
Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 10, 1865.

Mr. Smith:

SIR:—On consultation the editors of the Standard deem it best not to publish the communication.

Very truly,
CANNON & HOLDEN.

[LETTER.]

"To the Boys of Raleigh."

RALEIGH, October 9, 1865.

Young Gentlemen:—Your polite, though anonymous letter I took from the post-office only yesterday morning, which reads as follows:

"RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 2, 1865.

"MR. SMITH: Sir.—We, the boys of Raleigh, in a meeting have resolved if you do not stop walking with the Misses "Negress" of Raleigh, that we will take you and black your face, so that you will be the color that you wish to be; and for the second offence we will tar and feather you, and ride you on a rail. We, the boys, warn you as a white man to stop associating with the negroes. You must not go to the white Convention of North Carolina, as a negro lover is not allowed to enter the honored capitol of North Carolina. YOUNG AMERICAN."

To which I beg leave to reply through the only medium you have left me. Your friendly interest in my behalf, and desire that I should walk in good company is pleasing. I regret that you should have been to the pains of holding a "meeting" in my case to pass the above kind resolution. Had you sent a committee to labor with me, it would have saved trouble. It would also have been more manly and "chivalrous," as I think.

I bespeak your indulgence. Man is a creature of society. I came to Raleigh, it is true, without being invited, about the 14th of April last. I am fond of good company, but the ladies, old and young, for some reason, turned their backs on me—they gave me the cold shoulder. I tried for several days to behave the best I knew how; put on my best store clothes, and tried to obtain a friendly glance from them. I yearned for them; but they did not notice me. There seemed to be a slight prejudice. I am fond of children, very, and wanted to caress them, but they made mouths at me. I went to church on Sunday, but had hard work to find a seat, and the lady in the pew rose up hastily and rushed out as if my presence was not so agreeable as some other folks. Nobody said "Good morning Mr. Smith, I am happy to see you." I waited for invitations to dinner, but no invite came. I went to board, but the landlady seemed distant and cold, and I paid my bill and left. She did not seem sorry. I am fond of singing and the piano, and solicited the privilege to spend the evening with some of the "first families," but Raleigh was discouraged. I heard that a party of "Yankee officers" were fortunate enough to be invited out, but some of them had first to drink "the health of President Davis" before they could be received into full fellowship.

Finally took the first society I could get. There were ladies of every grade of respectability present, and not being an absolute stranger to the ways of your society, I may have made mistakes. Some of these people seemed willing to speak to me, and even invite me to their church.—They did not run out of the pew when I went in.—Their complexions were darker than mine people, but lived very much as I do with the exception of their views, particularly on the Union. They even invited me to dinner. I went, the food was good. There was a lack of plates, but they are great on vocal music. I enjoyed myself.

When I was a boy, I heard a sermon from this text, "Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate." It made a deep impression upon my mind. My father also taught me never to be ashamed of my poor relations. We were poor ourselves, once. He also said, "My son, abstain from picking pockets, and robbing hen roosts; never speak evil of a person behind his back; pay the wood-sawyer and washerwoman; and always sign your name to what you write." These early instructions of my youth, I have always tried to follow.

I hope you will rescind your resolution to black my face, tar and feather me, and ride me on the rail. From having frequently heard of persons who have experienced these recreations in the South, I have a prejudice against them. Consider to what straits I have been reduced to find good society. Reflect. In the eloquent language of another, "we are going home" I may be at "the old homestead" when you come, and I would not look well with my face blacked and otherwise disfigured by tar. Besides, it would sound badly abroad, and might hinder "immigration." I have an extensive acquaintance among the members of Congress, and am on good terms with the President, whom I assisted to elect by reporting his anti-slavery speeches in Tennessee. If your fathers or friends need my good offices in the way of procuring pardons, perhaps I can aid them. I have, also, a large acquaintance among the dry goods jobbers and grocers of New York, and, as I have done before, I will introduce such of you as may wish to purchase goods "on time." By lynching me you will lose my valuable services.

Kindly yours, E. SMITH,
Correspondent N. Y. Tribune.

STATE ITEMS.

QUERE.—Our contemporary of the Wilmington Journal, in his paper of the 4th inst., stated that Judge Pearson was defeated by a Mr. Haines, the author of "Davidson." He has fallen into an error. The authorship of the Davidson articles is generally attributed to Col. Hanes, of Davidson, at present serving as one of Gov. Holden's aids. We notice this in justice to Col. Hanes. We understand the delegate from Yadkin said during the canvass that if elected he would introduce an ordinance granting a bounty of one dollar a day to deserters from the Confederate army, for every day they were compelled to be out. He can at least lay claim to originality.—Salisbury Banner.

The large barn of Maj. Morrow, not far from the town of Charlotte, was burned with its contents a day or two since. It is supposed to have been the work of incendiaries and the loss will be heavy as it was filled with grain and forage.

The exports from the port of Wilmington for the week ending October 7th, were: 1,061 bales cotton, 1,960 bbls. rosin, 239 bbls. spts turpentine, 799 bbls. tar, 128 bbls. tallow, 484 bbls. beeswax, 2,098 lbs. hides, 420 lbs. brass, 295 lbs. copper, and 1,156 lbs. lead.

The amount of internal revenue collected on shipments from the same point, for the same week, was $10,000.56.

On Sunday night last two prisoners escaped from the Newbern prison and have not been rearrested. One of them, Schierber, was awaiting trial for horse stealing, and the other, Keys, was in upon charge of robbery.

John O'Conner, recently arrested by the military at Newbern, has been released.

We are much gratified, says the Charlotte Times, at the stand taken on the Boyden resolutions by the members from this county. Mr. McIvor's remarks were to the point and reflected the sentiments of at least three-fourths of his constituency. We are glad the act of rehabilitating the State is over as far as the Convention is concerned, though we do not fully endorse the manner.

We have received the first number of the Daily Dispatch, a new paper just started at Wilmington, by Messrs. Barry & Bernard. The paper is large and well filled, and we wish it success. The typography is very neat and pretty. Wilmington is going ahead and now has three well conducted dailies—the Herald, Journal and Dispatch—and the proprietors of all of them ought and we hope will make fortunes.

Deer are this season uncommonly plentiful along the Pee Dee in Richmond and Anson counties, and the dwellers in and near the bottoms are having fine times in hunting them.

An old lady named Jackson, residing near Winston, met with a singular death on Tuesday last. She was in the hay meadow and was about to return home upon the wagon, in front of which she had perched herself. The horses starting suddenly, she lost her hold and was pitched off upon the ground. She laid motionless where she fell, and upon being lifted up by her companions, they discovered to their surprise that she was dead. It is supposed by some that the cervical vertebræ were dislocated, but no inquest was held.

The drought continues, says the Wadesboro Argus, and its effects are beginning to be seriously felt by everybody. Since our article of a few weeks ago, not enough rain has fallen to lay the dust. No one is attempting to prepare the ground for seeding small grain. Milling is very difficult to be got—many persons we see passing through this town going a distance of forty miles from their homes to have their grinding done. Several mills on Rocky River have been obliged to curtail operations for want of water, and apprehensions are felt that all of them on that stream will, in a short time, be obliged to suspend work altogether unless we have rains soon. The turnip crop is almost an entire failure, and other garden "truck" has entirely disappeared.

A body of some thirty white persons, all sexes, some from Wadesboro, but mostly from the Pee Dee bottoms in Anson and Richmond counties, passed through the former place Saturday last, on their way to Mississippi. The party was well supplied with wagons and teams, and were convoyed by twenty or thirty negroes. They are the first party of emigrants from that section—who goes next?

The agency of the Goodspeed steamship line, at Newbern, is about to be changed, our old friend, Charly Goodspeed retiring to New York, and the popular firm of Wm. H. Oliver & Co., succeeding to the office vacated. We predict that the new agents will win largely upon the confidence of the shipping community throughout the State by their courtesy, energy and promptness.

Georgia has sent a State Commissioner to Europe to encourage foreign emigration to the State. Col. A. P. Wetter has been selected for the mission.

The Virginia elections take place to-day.

If "Barney" will give us his real name we shall be disposed to publish his letter respecting certain gentlemen for the Legislature, but we publish nothing of the kind until we know who writes it.

THE Mayor of Vicksburg allows the blacks to testify before his court, and all matters between the races are disposed of by the civil authorities, without any reference to the officers of the freedmen's bureau.

THE rebel Ram, sold at auction below Kinston, on Monday, was purchased by Mr. John Satterlee, of the firm of Satterlee, Lyon & Co., New York.

The steamship Daniel Webster, from New Orleans on the 22d ult. for New York, came in here short of coal to-day. She reports landing prisoners at the Dry Tortugas, where it was learned that the prisoner Dr. Mudd attempted to escape, but was found in the coal bunk of the steamer Thomas Scott. He was put to work wheeling sand, and the Quartermaster of the steamer Thomas Scott was arrested charged with aiding Dr. Mudd to escape.

TAKING THE OATH.—The Washington Republican says:

Mrs. INGRAHAM, sister of ROBERT E. LEE, was at the Provost Marshal's office of the District of Columbia, this morning, and Provost Marshal Capt. RUSSELL administered to her the oath of allegiance.

Jeff Thompson tells the editor of the Louisville Journal, that the only persons in the South who wish to do any more fighting, are those who didn't do any when they had a chance.

The bells of the Charleston churches were all taken to Columbia at the time of Sherman's raid. Only three broken ones remain; the rest are supposed to have been stolen.

THE LOST TONGUE.—Not far from Seven-oaks there lives a man whose spouse one day got in a pet, and refused to speak for eight or ten days. Well, the husband, poor fellow, although her silence sometimes used to be most devoutly wished for, wished to hear again the clapper of that little bell, that sometimes made his ears tingle; she was inexorable. At last he hit upon an expedient that brought her to her speech again. She was very neat and tidy about her furniture and apparel. He stepped into another room, opened a bureau, and commenced throwing the contents on the floor.—She came in when he had nearly completed his work of tumbling out silks, laces, handkerchiefs, &c. and without thinking, screamed out "Mercy! what in the world are you doing?" "Nothing," he replied, quite coolly; "only looking for my wife's tongue, which I have found in the bottom of these drawers."

A Florence letter has the following: "In Modena a treasure has been discovered, in the form of an account-book, with double entries, kept by that most chivalrous and humorous of Accountants, General. Ariosto. The register commences with the year 1522, and terminates with the 15th of May 1525, and is all in the handwriting of him who sang of Orlando, that most conspicuous and celebrated among the people, 'reputed to be very sensible, yet gone furiously mad from sheer love.' This trouvaille is bound in parchment, and contains leaves, each of which bears the ducal stamp of the House of Este." Some letters in the handwriting of Ariosto have recently been disposed of London.

GOV. BROWNLOW ON SUFFRAGE.—In a message the Tennessee Legislature, Gov. Brownlow says: A large class, ignorant, docile, easily led by signing men, and not safely trusted with political power, I am not willing to see at the ballot-box; as even these have been faithful among the lless, if Rebels are to be restored to the "right of ive franchise, I would say let us no longer deny political rights to the slaves. In my judge a loyal negro is more eminently entitled to suf th an a disloyal white man."

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.

Pennsylvania Election.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct, 10.—Election returns so far as received indicate that the State has gone republican.

The vote in this city is the largest ever cast, except at the Presidential election in 1860. McMichael, Union candidate for Mayor, has been elected by over five thousand majority.

Hartranft is undoubtedly chosen Auditor General and Campbell Surveyor General. They leave Philadelphia with over seven thousand majority, which will be difficult to overcome.

Gen. Bank's Nominated.

BOSTON, Oct. 11.—The Republican convention of the sixth district, which met this afternoon, nominated Maj. Gen. Banks for Congress.

Ohio Election.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 11.—Maj. Gen. S. S. Cox, the Union candidate for Governor, has carried Ohio by twenty-five thousand majority. This is another anti-negro suffrage triumph.

[It will be remembered that Gen. Cox was once in command of this department and the many true friends he made will rejoice at his triumph.—ED. PROGRESS.]

Release of Distinguished Confederates.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Alex. H. Stephens, late Vice President of the late Confederacy; Trenholm, the last rebel Secretary of the Treasury; John A. Campbell, Confederate Assistant Secretary of War, and Ex-Gov. Clark, of Mississippi, having applied to the President for pardons, he has ordered that they be released from close confinement on their respective paroles to appear at such time and place as he may designate, to answer such charges as he may direct to be preferred against them. It is further stipulated that the parties are to remain within their respective States until further orders.

Pardons have also been signed by the President in behalf of the members of the South Carolina seceding convention and forwarded to Gov. Perry for distribution.

Davis and Other State Prisoners.

The Petersburg Express of yesterday says:—A gentleman was in this city Tuesday, who saw (but was not permitted to converse with them) on Monday last, Mr. Jefferson Davis, Clement C. Clay, and Mr. John Mitchel. The two former appeared cheertul and contented, but the latter seemed to be sad and gloomy. He states that the prisoners are all very comfortably quartered, and are daily furnished with the very best diet which the Norfolk and Baltimore markets afford. Save the restraints imposed by confinement, the prisoners are as comfortably situated at this time as they or their friends could desire.

Advices from Texas say that Gen. Merritt is taking active measures to protect the inhabitants from the inroads of the savages. The work of civil reorganization is progressing very successfully. One hundred and five counties are already completed and only thirty remain to be "fixed." The good conduct of the soldiers is the theme of universal comment. Governor Hamilton was very popular with the people.

Gen. Sherman had a handsome reception in Madison, Wisconsin, on the 1st inst.

A difficulty occurred at Memphis a few days ago, between colored troops and the police. Several of the latter were badly injured, and a number of the former are reported killed.

Fanny Jackson, a young colored woman of Washington, D. C., graduated from the classical course of Oberlin College at the late Commencement. She is the first female college graduate of African descent.

AUCTION SALES
GOVERNMENT PROPERTY
IN THE
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.
AUCTION SALES OF HORSES, MULES, ARMY Wagons, Spring Wagons, Harness and other government property will take place from time to time at the principal cities and towns in the State.
These sales will afford farmers excellent opportunities to stock their farms with any class of animals they desire to purchase.
Each sale will embrace a variety of stock, including riding and draught Horses and Mules of every class. A few very large Mules, thoroughly broken to harness, and in fine condition, will be offered at each sale.
The attention of capitalists and dealers in stock is particularly called to the opportunities here presented for profitable investment. Stock purchased for cash at these sales may be sold on credit, with ample security, at a large advance, to farmers who are depending on their growing crops for means to purchase—or may be retained, and sold for cash at a large profit after the crops have matured.
Terms CASH on day of sale.
Sales will continue during the months of September and October will be advertised in this column as soon as dates are fixed.

Mr. EDITOR:—THE FOLLOWING IS STRANGE BUT TRUE.
'Twas late last night that I was sitting, in my chamber, lonely, knitting,
Knitting on the same old stocking, I'd commenced before the war;
Knitting carefully, I was heeling—when methought I heard one stealing,
Stealing softly up the stairway, leading to my chamber door.
This I thought, and listened more.
Soon I heard a gentle knocking—hastily I dropped my stocking;
Dropped my knitting—the old stocking I commenced before the war.
Again, and louder, came the rapping—as tho' they thought that I was napping;
Me a napping? Knitting, napping? Me who never "Ope the door."
This the voice said—"Ope the door!"
"'Tis Sally's voice"—says I—"'tis Sally, and I know she's got some news,
And I'm powerful glad she's come too, for I most did have the blues.
"Sally," says I, "Sally, howdye?" "What's the news! Do have a chair?"
"Glorious news, my Peggy darling—glorious news from Market Square."
"From Shepherd's Store in Market Square."
At Shepherd's Store, they've got new shoes—such beauties new, laced up, tasseled beauties.
Morocco, kid, and patent leather—Congress gaiters, toe-tipped bootees.
Balmoral, Prunello and Creole. Mens and women, boys and girls;
Such a sight it is to behold—they're the cheapest in the world.
The very cheapest in the world.
And Peggy, dear, they've got new hats—military and civilian.
All the style of Frenchy fashion—a la Emp'reur Maximilian.
And I told my husband, Johnny, "throw aside that rusty beaver."
"Go to Shepherd's—market square—get a hat you spy deceiver,
Get a hat, and burn your beaver."
Well, Peg—John went to market square—he's just got back—rigged up so gay,
A bran new suit from top to toe—and cheap as dirt, for ready pay:
And I advise you, Peggy darling—to give what coin you've got to spare,
To your dear Bobby in the morning—and send him straight to Market Square"
To Shepherd's Store, in Market Square.
"I'll do it, Sally dear"—says I—I'll send Bob early in the morn.
I'll send him straight to Shepherd's Store—I will as sure as I am born,
Good-bye, dear Sally! Must you go? Yes—good-bye Peggy—now take care,
Be sure that Bob finds the right place—'tis SHEPHERD'S STORE, at Market Square.
Shepherd's Store, at Market Square.
We have a fine assortment of Ready-made Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, &c., which we will sell at very low prices.
